

The Building Committee oversees the restoration, preservation, maintenance, and improvement of the historic church and its grounds. The committee evaluates building needs, prioritizes restoration projects, coordinates with contractors and preservation specialists, monitors project budgets and timelines, and ensures that all work aligns with historic preservation standards. The committee provides recommendations and updates to the Board of Directors to help preserve Historic Woolsey Church for future generations.