

WOLLEY CLUB.

Harvard Wills Literary Society met at the residence of Mr. M. D. Stone last Friday night. House was called to order by the president Mr. E. J. Stone. We were glad to receive another new member last meeting. We were highly entertained by the debaters, Mr. Leonard Roberts, Mr. W. C. Stone and Miss Grace Stone. The question that was debated was, "Whether that country life is more desirable than city life." It was decided to favor the negative. The report of the committee was read. We adjourned until Friday night at the residence of Mr. Leonard Roberts.
